Preface

The Knight Academy

I want to experience life to the fullest by building a close relationship with the King (the Creator and Redeemer of life) and by building up honor in the Kingdom of Heaven. This requires living life in peace, exploring life in truth, encouraging life in blessing, pursuing life in righteousness, defending life in spirit, and sharing life in testimony.

Unit A

Relationship with the King

Peace comes with the security of being loved by the Eternal and knowing He is protecting your life. Relationships grow by spending time together and following the proper roles. With the Eternal, this means learning His word in Scripture and spending time in worship. It means learning who He is and what He has done. Respecting His position and honoring Him. Accepting His love and care is a choice we make, both now and eternally. It is an active relationship, not a set of religious traditions.

Unit B
Reality of the Kingdom of Heaven

Truth comes by learning what is real and actual as well as by exposing the lies of the enemy. My personal battle is in the arena of truth and falsehood. Wanting to understand and experience reality is my passion. I want to know the limits of His creation, the beauty therein, and know the answers to the great questions of life. What is false has taken so much from life and I do not want to lose anymore.

Unit C

Responsibility in the Covenant

Blessing and cursing are a form of honor and dishonor and of reward and punishment. It is a judgment on our actions within the covenant relationship we have with the Eternal. He has given the instructions on how to live a healthy life, care for our world, relate to other people, and most importantly how to have a proper relationship with Him. Obeying the covenant helps life in so many subtle and hard to quantify ways.

Unit D

Righteousness

in the

Messiah

Righteousness is the standard by which all things are measured in the Kingdom of Heaven. For people, righteousness can only be attained through the forgiveness of sin that is offered through Yahshuah, the Savior. After that, as believers, we have the choice towards righteous or unrighteous actions and to grow in our understanding of righteousness while living in a world full of wickedness.

Resisting Evil in the World

When life is attacked, it must be defended. There is an enemy to life who must be stopped. The strongest weapon of the enemy is the lie and so our strongest defense is the truth - the Eternal's word in Scripture. Although the effects can sometimes be seen in the physical, the battlefield is in the spiritual.

Remember Your Testimony

Testimony is giving your witness to what the Eternal has done in your life. It can encourage people, show them what life as a believer really looks like, and even draw people to becoming believers themselves. Sharing our failures and His successes can be humbling, but it shows His honor and power and love.

Conclusion

Defending Life

Righteousness is the true key to all the others. If you have righteousness, then you will have peace, and truth, and blessing, and spirit, and testimony, and life, and honor. The gift of righteousness from the Messiah and the righteousness of our own actions build life while unrighteousness tears it down.
